Kettler Kapers

Kettler Hunter Snowbound on Trip

By ROSEMARY WESTON
 Davenport 6-3871
 Well, Ray Archibald was certainly glad to get back to his nice, warm, sunny California this last week. Ray and his wife went to Denver for a three-week vacation. They visited their daughter, Mrs. William Hurt, and her family in Denver. Then they went to Greeley, Colo., to visit their daughter, Mrs. V. D. Peterson, and her family. Then Mr. Archibald decided to go on a hunting trip with his son-in-law, William Hurt, (who by the way is a captain on an airliner in Denver) and a few other men. While they were up in the mountains they got in a snow storm, and were snowbound six days. Though they had a nice comfortable trailer, and enough supplies, an airplane dropped them food packages, and they had to wait for the snowplow to get them out. None the worse for their experience, they all managed to bring out their deer and elk.

home is in Hylthville, Ark. He is enjoying everything about California except the rain.

Mrs. Ray Sleppy's mother, Mrs. Lily Grey, who lives with her at 1765 Santa Fe, is just home from an operation, and would like to visit her a speedy recovery.

Billy Schuchman, of 1953 Reynosa Dr., was a very surprised and happy little boy last Saturday, because he got his long-wished-for two-wheel bike. Coming from Los Angeles to spend the day and help him celebrate were his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Rice, his aunt Nancy, and Harry Brantstetter. Mrs. Schuchman attended a farewell luncheon at the Masonic Temple, which was given by the Betsy Ross Club for the officers who are leaving. Mrs. Schuchman was the secretary for the past year.

Jack and Irene Burnham, of 23020 Huber, have been entertaining Jack's nephew, Pfc. Bill Burnham, who is spending a 10-day leave with them. He is just completing his boot training at Camp Pendleton. Bill's mother, Mrs. Burnham, and his father, Mr. Burnham, were with him when he left.

Well, the Fireladies dance was a huge success, and among the many Koteries who were seen there were Margaret and Gene Beavers, the Johnny Jonsruds, and Camilla and Joe Helphand of Middlebrook, Carmen and Jay Nelson, Edna and Walt Sharon, Virginia and Gordon Jones, Milly and Walt West, and Madeline and Jim Wertz of Reynosa Dr., and the Paul Clark and Bill Russells of Falena Ave.

Skippy Weston, of 23032 Huber Ave., was a very excited little boy last Sunday when he had 17 boys and girls over to help him celebrate his fifth birthday. The guests were from Torrance, San Pedro, and Lomita. Games were played and the winners were Clarence Silder of Seaside Heights, for pinning the tail on the donkey; Patricia Cervantes, for dropping the clothespins in the bottle; Luetta Silder, of Seaside Heights, for the peanut hunt; and Kathy Sifers, of Middlebrook Rd., won the other prize. After filling up on candy, nuts, pop, cream, and a merry-go-round cake, 17 tired little children trooped home to bed.

The long-awaited baby of the Wayne Newlands of 1775 Calamar Ave., finally came flying into Torrance Memorial Hospital at 1:30 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 12. Barbara Joann weighed in at a large 8 lbs. 12 oz. Her big

Initiation Meeting Slated By South Bay B'nai B'rith

Initiation of new members into the South Bay B'nai B'rith Lodge 1824 will be held tonight at 8:30 at a meeting in Temple Shalom, Century and Normandie in Los Angeles. Since it is the only initiation of the year, all members who have not been initiated must attend, lodge spokesmen said. A social period will follow the meeting and refreshments will be served.

DAV Commander Hails Response to Campaign

A "Thank You" to Torrance area residents was voiced this week by V. U. Sarvis, commander of the South Bay Chapter 92 of the Disabled American Veterans following the organization's "Forget-Me-Not" sale here recently. Sarvis said the response made it possible for the chapter to plan a program of assistance for residents in the community.

Two-year-old brother was overjoyed when his own baby sister and his momma came home last Sunday. The proud grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Newland of Torrance, and Mr. and Mrs. James Maxham of Wilmington.

How about some more phone calls so we can have a little longer column next week. I can't put your news in unless you let me know what it is.
